Built by Ebenezer Wilson in 1861. He was one of four brothers who settled in this part of the country, having acquired the land from the Connecticut Land Company in the late 1840's. The Wilson heirs sold the property, consisting of 88 acres in 1885 to Robert Falkner, who in turn sold it to William Baldauf (deceased) in 1907.

It is a stone two-story building. Cut stone front (12" x 52") with quoins of same size on sides, side and rubble; slate roof, walls 21" thick. Original fireplace in Music room. Sheet iron decorated to simulate wood inlay work with decorative tile hearth. Building is in good state of repair.
